From the Database Coordinator

DataFest 2008

I hope to see many of you at the Tenn-Share DataFest this Thursday, Sept. 11th, at the Nashville Public Library. Over 150 of you have already registered, so if you haven't yet, please plan to join your colleagues for an interesting and informative day. Tuesday is the deadline for online registration. Onsite registration is available starting Thursday morning. Both are free!

All the DataFest information, including online registration, list of vendors and products, and schedules of product demonstrations and TEL training, are available on the Tenn-Share web site. Please visit <http://www.tenn-share.org/?p=148>, or if that doesn't work, <http://www.tenn-share.org/datafest08> as we are in process of switching to our new, improved website (more on this later!). The final schedule and information will be distributed at the registration desk on Thursday morning.

After the DataFest, plan to stick around for a tour of NPL's digitization facilities at 5:00, the Gala Reception unveiling Volunteer Voices at 5:30, and following that, a gathering of Tenn-Share Learn & Discover participants at the Sheraton lounge. And, of course, the Tenn-Share Fall Conference on Friday!

We continue our offers for JSTOR, World Trade Press, and Cambridge Histories Online. Please take a moment to check these out.

With election season upon us, check out our two free databases on the presidency and government: Ben's Guide to U.S. Government for Kids and American President: An Online Reference Resource.

Our picture this week is the lobby of the Nashville Public Library, site of the DataFest and Fall Conference.

The percent of discount depends upon several factors, including the size of the group. If you are interested, please email me (LuckDL@wildblue.net) with the collection(s) you are considering by Monday, September 22.

Global Road Warrior

Global Road Warrior provides, according to many client librarians, the world's most comprehensive country data related to:

- *Society and Culture (about 10 x the content of CultureGrams)
- *Communications (the world's most comprehensive)
- *Media (details on thousands of media outlets worldwide)
- *Travel (with more of a business perspective, but equally usable for personal travel)
- *Trade
- *Business
- *Money and Banking (scans of all banknotes and coinage in worldwide circulation)
- *Country Maps (9 proprietary downloadable maps per country) and more than 20 other topics.

Many institutions find that the content takes the place of as many as five reference books and six subscriber databases; saving a substantial amount of money. Compare it to Facts on File products and CultureGrams.
